MR P. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know why the Alleppey District Court has the largest number of original suits pending?

MR. PUTHUPALLI S. KRISHNA PILLAI: The main reason is that during the last one year, several sessions cases had to be tried by the Sessions Judges of the Alleppey District Court The riot case connected with the labour disputes, the Thalayolaparambu case and various other sessions cases had to be conducted and finished by the Sessions Judges of the Alleppey District Court. That was the reason why there was so much pendency especially in regard to original suits.

MR. P. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know whether it is not desirable to separate the Karthikapalli.....

PRESIDENT: Order, order. How does that question arise?

MR. G VELU PILLAI: It arises in this way. In order to reduce the number of pending cases in the Alleppey District Court.....

PRESIDENT: Order, order.

MR. P. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know why the Mavelikara District Court has the smallest number of pending cases?

MR. PUTHUPALLI S. KRISHNA PILLAI. The Mavelikara District Court was started only in the beginning of 1116 and it is only cases that have been transferred from other courts to that court that comprise the list that is furnished.

MR. P. SIVARAMA PILLAI: May I know why there is no accumulation of cases in the Mavelikara District Court?

MR. PUTHUPALLI S. KRISHNA PILLAI: The experiment has been put into practice only recently and if honourable members want accumulation of cases, they will have to wait for some time more. (Laughter).

MR. P. NARAYANA PILLAI: May I know whether the Alleppey District Court has any more work connected with the Special Sessions Cases?

MR. PUTHUPALLI S. KRISHNA PILLAI: Yes, Sir. The Alleppey District Court has not yet been able to dispose of all the pending sessions cases It is reported that there is yet more sessions work to be attended to.

MR. P. KUNJUKRISHNAN: May I know the number of Special Sessions cases at Alleppey?
